

| | | | |
|---------|------------|-------------------|-----------|
| OUTLIVE | OUTPERFORM | OUTWIT / OUTSMART | OUTLAST |
| OUTSELL | OUTBID | OUTGROW | OUTNUMBER |
| OUTRUN | OUTPLAY | OUTCLASS | OUTWEIGH |

OUT, OUT, OUT !

For each of the situations below, choose one of the verbs from the box and make a suitable sentence.

- 1.
2. Mr. Jones 1980 Mrs. Jones 1990
3. His enormous experience is more important than the fact that he doesn't have any academic qualifications.
- 4.
- 5.
6. Mrs. Smallbrain bought an expensive pair of football boots for her son Ronald on his eighth birthday. At that time he wasn't very interested in football. Now he is 9 ½ years old. Suddenly he thinks that football is absolutely fantastic. Unfortunately those beautiful, expensive football boots don't fit him anymore.
7. Tennis result: Bendl v. Lecker - 6 - 0, 6 - 0, 6 - 0
8. The fox and the raven both wanted the cheese, but the raven had it in its mouth. The fox complimented the raven on the raven's marvelous voice. The raven opened its mouth to sing. The cheese fell out of the raven's mouth and dropped down from the tree where the raven was sitting. the fox got the cheese
9. Thermostat sales 1990: Danfoss 7.1 million
 Lucas 3.5 million
 Baker 2.3 million
10. Last year's bids to acquire STINDIP INDUSTRIES LTD, BASINGSTOKE
 Hodgkiss Brothers 4.6 million
 Danfoss 4.2 million
 Floggle Toggle Ltd. 1.5 million
11. Our factory was built to cater for all the necessary machinery, plus 500 workers. There are now 900 workers and we need to buy more equipment.

12.